To whom it may concern,

This is a letter of recommendation for vocalist Leonardo McFarlane.

Leo has been an invaluable leader of the Temperature band on board the Norwegian Jewel this contract. He is a talented musician and band leader that presents a versatility suited to the many demographics we get on a cruise ship with a constantly changing itinerary.

He targets his sets and playlists to suit the audience and is flexible enough to deal with any musical challenges that are presented.

From young to old, across an international spectrum, Leo has proven to be an invaluable musician and leader.

Kind Regards,
